- (6) Any equivalent examination accepted by the Ministry of Education, e.g. Minimum examination qualifications for candidates seeking admission to Training Colleges. (Vide Ministry of Education Circular 213, Appendix I, dated March 1950.)
- (7) The "Second Examination" or the "Higher Certificate," and the "Matriculation" of various Dominion Universities may also be accepted, but must be specially approved.
- (8) Students must also have obtained, previous to being admitted to the final year of the Joint Course, either the L.R.A.M. or A.R.C.M. or the L.R.S.M. Diploma.
- (9) The Diploma, G.R.S.M. (London), will not be issued to anyone under the age of twenty-one years.
- (10) In accordance with the rules laid down by the Ministry of Education, students are not permitted to undertake any regular paid work during their Course.

THE COURSE

The Course, beginning in the September Term, will normally occupy three consecutive years.

Until the final year students will pursue the ordinary full-course curriculum of the Royal Academy of Music or the Royal College of Music (see Prospectus of each Institution).

Past students who have completed two years at the R.A.M. or R.C.M. and who wish to take the final year of the Course after a break in studentship may do so only by special permission of the Principal or the Director.

The final year of the Course will be devoted to training for Music Teaching. The special curriculum for this year embraces a Course of Lectures, Discussion Classes and Practical Teaching, and also 60 minutes weekly for the Students' individual tuition.

During the final year every student of the Course at either Institution will be responsible for the instrumental teaching of individual children and for the teaching of Aural Training and Singing Classes. All students will be supervised in this work. Arrangements are made for students to have observation and practice teaching in outside schools during the year.

EXAMINATION

At the end of the Final Year, in July, an examination will be held for the Special Diploma, "GRADUATE OF THE ROYAL SCHOOLS OF MUSIC (LONDON)," and candidates who satisfy the examiners will have the exclusive right to use the letters "G.R.S.M. (London)."

This examination, on the work of the final year, will be partly written and partly oral. Students must satisfy the Board of Examiners in all parts of the Examination, namely (1) Written Work; (2) Instrumental Teaching; (3) Class Teaching. Only those students who have attended 75% of the Lectures, Classes and Practical Teaching in each subject will be permitted to enter for this examination.

Candidates failing in any part of the examination may enter for those parts in any of the three succeeding years.

No re-examination will take place until the following year. Candidates will be notified whether they are required to take one or more parts of the examination again.

PART I.: WRITTEN WORK

There will be four papers of three hours each :—

1. Questions on Psychology and Instrumental teaching.
(The Psychology paper will be based on a knowledge of "Psychology for Musicians" by P. C. Buck and "Talks to Teachers" by W. James).
2. Questions on the teaching of Aural Training and Harmony.
3. Questions on the teaching of Class Singing and questions on general musical knowledge.
4. History and the teaching of Musical Appreciation.

The Syllabus for History and Appreciation is as follows :—

Candidates will be required to possess a detailed knowledge of the set works (see below), together with a general knowledge of the outline of musical history.

Set Works :—

Vocal.

Any three Tudor madrigals or ballets.

Any five songs of Purcell.

Any five songs of Schumann.

Piano.

The four preludes and fugues in E flat major and E flat minor from the 48 : Bach.

A Scherzo : Chopin.

Chamber Works.

Piano quintet : Dvořák *or*Piano quartet in A : Brahms.

Orchestral.

Overture "The Magic Flute" Mozart

„ „The Flying Dutchman” Wagner

Symphony No. 2 in D major Beethoven

The "London" Vaughan Williams

or For Violoncello and Orchestra Elgar

PARTS II. and III. : VIVÂ VOCE

Candidates will be required to give two demonstration lessons :

(a) on an instrument, and

(b) on class subjects,

and they will have to answer questions arising out of these lessons on technique, interpretation, repertoire, etc.

Candidates will also be tested in sight reading in their principal study.

Some weeks before the vivâ voce examination candidates will be given the titles of set songs to prepare. The examiners will select one of these for the class-teaching examination. Candidates must be prepared to accompany any of the songs upon the piano, and must show reasonable facility in keyboard harmony, modulation and improvisation.

Candidates will be examined in the teaching of Aural Training, including time and rhythm, scales, melody making, chords, cadences and modulation to nearly related keys. On the day of the examination each candidate will be told which part of this subject is to be taught.

Reports on each student will be made by the Professors in charge of all the Experimental Teaching Classes and by the Supervisors of the practical teaching, and these reports will be taken into consideration at the examination.

FEES

The Fee for the Special Examination at the end of the Course for the Diploma, "G.R.S.M. (London)," is £5 5s.

For re-examination the fees are £5 5s. for the whole examination or £2 2s. for each of the three parts.
